

A Modified Selkirk Grace in the Woke era of Diversity, Inclusion and Equity.

Some ha'e meat and cannae eat,
And some ha'e nane and want it.
But we ha'e meat and we can eat
And sae the Lord be thankit.

Hey! It's time to change, and re-arrange,
The famous Grace of Selkirk.
Forget the rumours, we hate all Boomers
This verse we must re-work.

For D.I.E. is all you see:
Diverse, Inclusion, Equity
If you don't change this Grace quite strange
You're cancelled by necessity.

So some hae meat we will nae eat
Because we are nae pagans
We'll Only eat the leeks and neeps
Because we're all now vegans.

For we hate meat that's bad to eat
We're for sustainability
Meat's stuffed with bugs and other ughs
That screw your brain's agility

We'd rather starve than brisket carve
And so to be inclusive
You must avoid a snort out loud
And curb remarks abusive.

Bless our Juicers, bless our Kale,
And bless our Soy and Tofu,
Bless non-toxic pans and knives
And curse cow proteins awfu'

For pies of mince and tatties too
From Heilan' coo so flatulent
With tax, or no, on carbon too
For those we should be penitent

Then filled with fruits of field and vine
And avoiding liquids risky
The one who water turned to wine
We'll ask to bless our whisky
